

Dear Expectant Parent,

We can't even imagine how difficult this decision has been as you have decided to give your child an opportunity at life through an adoption plan. We hope you know what an incredible gift this is to your child and to the parents that God has chosen to raise the blessing you are carrying. We know, without a doubt, that the Lord will lead you to who that couple is. We pray that you would find comfort in that, as we know this is a weighty decision.

As a result, we desire to give you a glimpse into who we are and what God has done in our lives so you know if we are that couple or not. It is an honor to come alongside you in this journey.

Since we got married a little later in life, it was our plan to start our family shortly after we were married...but that was not God's plan for us. About a year-and-a half into marriage, we discovered that according to doctors, we would not be able to conceive a child. After four years of infertility, we weren't sure if or how the Lord was going to provide children for us. We always knew adoption was an option for us, but it wasn't until recently that it became clear that adoption was the path we were to take. Our eyes have been opened to the picture of sacrificial love that adoption is, and we are beyond humbled to know that God may add to our family by allowing us to adopt a baby (or two!) to love and raise.

As much as we both like to prepare and plan, God has been teaching us through our infertility and the adoption process what it means to truly follow Him and how to surrender our plans and dreams so He can show us His plans and dreams. We know that there are a great deal of unknowns in adoption, and we don't know what the future holds. What we DO know is that we are in His hands, you and your baby are in His hands, and HE knows what the future holds. As we follow Christ, we desire to do what is best for the children that God entrusts to us and to honor the birth parents of our children.

We pray that as you make this decision, you will not have regrets, but instead you will have an unexplainable peace. We know this will be painful, but we also know that it will be beautiful, and God will use this child to change you forever.

With love,

Jesse and Becky
