

Hello, from the both of us...

We thank you for taking the time to examine our story. We offer you a glimpse into our thoughts concerning a family. Please consider this optimistically as we stand available to develop and raise a child. Our spiritual guidance has led us to this juncture and consideration of adoption.

Our names are Dionne and Kory, a married, Christian, family-driven couple that seeks to provide a nourishing environment for a small bundle of joy. We offer a stable home environment, balanced discipline, and moreover love. It has been our experience that family has been an important part of our journey. It holds significant value because it is where our memories and experiences stem. We, in turn, wish to provide the same foundational elements to our child.

It is our endeavor to provide our developing child with the beneficial components that forward their success. Some of these components include: Christian morals, respect, manners, and the drive to see their passions come to fruition. As a praying couple, we will continue to seek Gods guidance and His word concerning our journey into parenting. We appreciate your consideration and salute your endeavor to find a comparable fit for this deserving individual.

Dionne & Kory