

Dear Expectant Parents:

Hello There!

Thank you for taking the time to learn more about our family! While we may not know your story or how hard this decision must be, we are in awe of your strength, courage, and selflessness in choosing adoption. We promise that if you choose us to parent your little one, we will honor you in this child's life forever. They will always know of your love for them and our love and respect for you.

We've known for a while that we've wanted to grow our family through adoption and consider it an honor. Our decision to adopt was made for a multitude of reasons. The first, and main, reason is that Erica is unable to have children of her own. The other reasons stem from a desire to provide you with the peace of mind and support to make the decision you feel is best for you and your child. If you choose to place your child with us, we promise to work with you to come to a healthy and positive level of openness where everyone involved benefits and is comfortable.

It is our hope that through this book you get a glimpse into the love we have for each other, our family and our future children.

All our best,
Matt and Erica
