

Dear Expectant Parent,

We are so grateful you're taking the time to learn about our family. First and foremost—thank you. We admire your strength and courage in considering an adoption plan. This decision, made out of love, will have a lasting and meaningful impact on so many lives. If you choose to make us part of your story, we will be forever grateful and will always speak of your bravery, selflessness, and deep love for your child.

We have always dreamed of a big family. Our journey to grow our family has included both incredible joy and difficult challenges. We were blessed to welcome our son, Leo, through adoption in February 2023, and our daughter, Millie, was also born in February 2023. In the years since, we have continued to face fertility struggles. Through prayer and trust in God's timing, we feel a clear calling to adoption once again. We truly believe God is guiding us to the children meant for our family, and our experiences have only strengthened our faith, even through the harder moments. We have seen firsthand the beauty of adoption, and it is not lost on us how incredibly blessed we are to have been chosen by Leo's birth mother. Our family has so much love to give, and Leo and Millie are already wonderful siblings. They will be especially loving and understanding big siblings to another child through adoption, as they are growing up knowing just how special adoption has been in shaping our family.

We cannot thank you enough for considering us. We promise that your child will be deeply loved, supported, and cherished every single day. We will honor whatever level of openness you are most comfortable with and will always share with your child that this decision was made out of love, courage, and selflessness.

Thank you for taking the time to get to know us. We would be honored to share more with you in the future!

With love,

Blake, Kasey, Leo, and Millie