

Thank you for looking at our profile. We know placing your child is an incredibly difficult decision to make, but we believe you are on the right path for giving your child an amazing future. Our desire is to give your child a loving and caring home to grow up in surrounded by family and friends who want nothing but the best for them.

The chance to parent a child is something we've both wanted to do for a long time. We believe that having a family is part of our calling in life as a couple and we are looking forward to sharing God's love and our love with a child. Thank you for the opportunity for us to become parents, it is something that is so important to us. To entrust us with your child is a privilege we don't take for granted.

Thank you,

Adam and Hannah
