

Dear Expecting Parent,

First and foremost, we want you to know that you are incredibly brave and selfless for considering an adoption plan. We have no doubt that regardless of your decision to parent or your decision to make an adoption plan, you love your child so much more than what we could ever put into words and will make the decision that is best for them. You are strong and courageous and no matter what you decide, you are and always will be a good mother.

If you choose adoption with our family, we promise to tell your child about your love for them from the day they are born. We promise that they will always know their adoption story, and we promise to honor whatever information you would like shared with them. We promise to provide them with a loving home where they can always feel safe and cared for. We are blessed to have a very peaceful and happy home and can promise that your child will live in a home with lots of laughter. We promise to listen and to be honest when creating together what level of openness we both desire in our relationship. We promise to always be truthful with you and with your child. We promise to always love and support your child in all they aspire to do and be in life. We promise to comfort your child when they are sad. We promise to celebrate with your child when they succeed and even when they fail. We promise to encourage your child to always do their best and to help them see that their best is always enough. We promise to build your child's confidence so that they know who they are and all of the wonderful and special things God made about them. We promise to listen to your child and hear their concerns and give them unconditional love always. And we promise the same to you. We promise you will always have our unconditional love for entrusting us with the greatest blessing we have ever received.

We would love the opportunity to get to know you, but regardless of your decision, we pray for peace that surpasses all understanding and that you would know that you are loved.

With love and prayers,

Dan and Annie
